

I am a very frequent worldwide air traveler and would like to see a ban on cell phone use.

The primary reason is that calls will be disturbing to other passengers. Air travel is tense enough right now without the added distraction of phones calls being made and received. Can you imagine 600 people using cell phones on an A380? The airplane is the only place in our atmosphere where I cannot be reached and please keep it that way.